

- Present only the most important result on each slide.
- Figures are often easier to read than dense tables during a presentation.
- Use the discussion point to explain why the result matters.

Figure: Example figure placeholder

